

GENERALITIES.

W. H. Whitmore, of New York, has been put under $20,000 bonds for having a hand in the draw back made. He is his local. Rockland Free Press please note.

Sitting Webster, son-in-law of Secretary Fish, is reported as receiving the sum of $10,000 a year as the attorney for Spain before his august father-in-law.

Ashley, the impeached Gov. of Montana, has been removed by Grant, and nobody knows for what.

The experiment of using tules, a kind of root, for growing planting in California, swamps, for making paper, continues to prove successful, and the Californians are much rejoiced over it.

Vermont has got the potato root badly.

The widow of a man who had hydrophobia at Cincinnati sent the owner of the dog who caught her grief for $500.

Mr. Crowell, one of the editors of the Boston Banner of Light, dropped dead at Nashua, N. H.

The Senate Postal Committee is considering a plan for supplying Senators and Representatives with distinctive stamps to be used in sending letters and documents through the mails.

A plan of the Cubans to blow up the Spanish consuls in New York has been detected and stopped.

A lady in Paris is mourning over the loss of her seventh husband. She expects to complete the dozen this season.

The Rockland Free Press mentions a report that a W. W. Laughton, the runaway servant of Knox, was in a further effort to cross the Canadian border and an old one left in its place, now it is to give notice that it is not returned to me, at the address, posted in it, before the sun-down today, with the cost of this publication, I will forward to the person who took it, the letter found closed in the lining of the old one.

Ben Butler is continuing to brag about the immorality of New York. But don't think the place. It was there that he was compelled to beg $20,000 of gold stolen at New Orleans.

Two negroes carried off and outraged the daughter of an aged couple near Boydsville, Ky., last week, and were shot on the road next day.

Richmond in this state, boasts another Tom Thumb. A son of Mr. Joseph Thomas, eight years of age, stands 21 inches high in his shoes, and weighs but twenty-four pounds. He is a well made little fellow and is unusually bright and smart.

McFellows, of Concord, N. H., found on his doorstep recently a lot of silver ware stolen a year ago by some thief—not Ben Butler.

"Milwaukee woman lately put $20 in a coffin for safe-keeping. Her husband ground the greenbacks with his coffee and made a rather expensive cup."

A drunken fellow recently fell through the window of a Mendon house while trying to high his pipe at a scotch morrowgater.

The son of the Collector of Customs at Buffalo has been arrested for smuggling. Some of these local chaps are devilish sly. Rockland Free Press notice.

There are rumors of consolidation of the two railroads from Portland and Boston, and railroad men are beginning to be nervous about a mass of all interest between Bangor and Boston.

W. W. Lander, late Postmaster at Salem, Mass., is a defaulter to the amount of $2000. He is very lively. Rockland Free Press please notice.

Prof. A. S. Davis, formerly leader of the Band of the 1st Maine Cavalry, is now Band Master at the Military Academy, Togus, Arundelton Times.

To prevent mistakes, we will state that the above is not Prof. Davis of Chelsea, Mass., now on duty in this locality. He would cure all the inmates at Tugus with his American Balm, and delish the institution.

"You never saw such a happy lot of people as we had here yesterday," said a lady in Indian to a newly arrived guest. There were thirteen couples of whom she said, "Well, mother, 'tis a goodly number of people, but I don't see what you are so merry about." "Oh, no, sir, thirteen couples just married!"

Geo. E. Dunning, an official connected with the Submarine in New York, has been detected in embezzling $22,000. He is very lively. Rockland Free Press please notice.

"Mother," said a sharp little boy, "is it wicked to say 'hang'?" "Certainly, my son—that would be swearing." "But it is wicked to say 'hang'?" "Oh, no, my son—that is the name of an inmate in a lunatic asylum." "Well, mother, 'tis a goodly number of people, but I don't see what you are so merry about." "Oh, no, sir, thirteen couples just married!"

The Bangor Whig having run down S. L. Miliken as a candidate for U. S. Marshal, has now started collector Harmon.

A piece of beef, stuck in the throat, killed a legman in Rochester, last week, and the leggers left without accepting anything but poor beef.

Richard Enright, convicted of whiskey frauds, has been pardoned by President Grant. He is very lively. Will the Rockland Free Press notice the fact?

Mr. Hubbard, of Kennebunk, recently killed a hood-saw on the rocks at that place. The animal was seven feet long, and weighed 400 pounds.

The Buffalo Commercial Advertiser, by a typographical blunder, has called the Bangor Whig, "the Buffalo troupe," in response to an enclosure. "That touching air, 'I'm a Shout'."

Bangor is putting on as with its new post office.

Postmaster General Cresswell has appointed the following Postmasters: J. H. Wright, Jackson, Maine; Vice Samuel Morgan, Jr., Bangor, Maine; Watson, Sedgewick, Me.; Vice Samuel Morgan, Jr., Bangor, Maine.

A portion of the Spanish gumbos sailed from New York on Sunday.

The loss of the quiver in Bangor. A man adventured in the Whig a lounge found.

Monroe, tried at St. John, N. B., for the murder of a woman, and her child, of which he was the father, has been found guilty.

It is stated that Secretary Boutwell is preparing a report on the necessity of the encouragement of the American shipping interests which will probably be transmitted to Congress before the holidays.

Charles A. Eastman and his brother have been arrested charged with stealing cloth from the Lewiston mills and peddling it in the country. They had been doing a large business.

The following gentlemen have been appointed Justices of the Peace and Quorums: Clarence H. Ellsworth, John W. Dresser, Cashier; Isaac W. Allen, Sedgewick; E. W. Bush, Rockland; A. H. North, Bangor; John W. Lynde, and Elias A. Lynde, Bangor; Theodore W. Lynde, Bangor; and the following to be Coroners: Leander Weeks, Rockland; and Joseph H. Gould, Camden. T. W. Vose, Waterbury, and John A. Brackett, Lincolnville, to be Notaries Public.

The editor of the New York Spirit of the Times, who was in London at the opening of the new Blackfriars Bridge, pronounces the show of the Queen's and Lord Mayor's processions to have been very small affairs.

The President has nominated Greenleaf Gilley to be First Lieutenant in the 1st Cavalry.

Mr. Farland has been indicted for the murder of A. D. Richardson.

The Bangor Whig vigorously denounces lotteries at church fairs or anywhere else. [Portland Daily Advertiser.]

All right. Now will the Whig vigorously denounce Congress for the revenue law by which, for a few, lotteries may be legal?

A Gardner man called on the editor of the Bath Times last week, with fogging intentions, but a police officer "perforated him in the top."

Walter S. Waterhouse, of East Machias, in State Prison for two years, has been pardoned.

McIntosh, the Portland Argus has the particulars of the killing of a man named McCarthy, at Standish, on the line of the Portland and Ogdensburg railroad, by William Logan. Both were employed on the works. The killing was done in a fight, with which man and a woman had each something to do.

Mr. Richardson, near Pishon's Ferry, has now stored in for the purpose, fifteen hundred fat musk-rats, and the highest market for musk-rat is in the market to take them to Boston. [Waterbury Mail.]

Gold is down to 130.

Young folks who carry on flirtations, etc., &c. by the seaside, and think they can't be seen, should beware. The Coast Survey folks have powerful telescopes. The Portland Argus says—

The scenes witnessed on Cushing's and Peak's islands last summer by the coast surveyors are described as truly harrowing to the soul of the beholder. "Thou art so near and yet so far."

Miss Alice, the accomplished and beautiful daughter of Hon. Hon. Bradbury, was last week married to Mr. Chas. F. Libby, of Portland.

Mrs. Jane F. Thurston, of Portland, who has for many years urged her claims on the attention of the Legislature in vain, has advertised in the Portland Press to sell the whole state at auction, to satisfy her just demands!

The Emperor of France is recovering from his recent illness.

The English war steamer Monarch is coming to Portland with the remains of Mr. Peabody.

A gold-fever is raging at Cheyenne. Big Horn mountain is where they find it.

Portland is rejoicing over the introduction of water, and pilots everybody who can't drink of Sebago Lake fluid.

Dr. Andrew Meade of Albany, N. Y., was murdered and killed in his store Saturday night when he was in the city.

The storehouse of the Piscataquis State Company, at a wharf at Bangor, was burned on Sunday last.

The Spragues of Rhode Island own nine mills and employ ten thousand persons.

For a New Year's present, send your friends the Republican Journal a year.

Davis, radical, is now reported to have been elected Governor of Texas, over Hamilton, conservative, by 3000 majority.

Thirty-eight Gloucester vessels are engaged this winter in importing frozen herring from Newfoundland.

Some of the papers are saying that Father Hyacinth came to this country to make a Boston widow who had no more of it.

Healer, the man of 50, who murdered his wife at South Boston, has been sentenced to State Prison for life.

Two ships, 2 barks, and 4 three-masted scho. have been launched at Thomaston the present year, with an aggregate of 6533 tons.

By mistake of Grant's clerk there was included in some papers sent to the Senate, a letter from a Georgia woman charging Gov. Bullock with indecent exposure. It made quite an excitement. Thus Thum, a son of Mr. Joseph Thomas, eight years of age, stands 21 inches high in his shoes, and weighs but twenty-four pounds. He is a well made little fellow and is unusually bright and smart.

Some ten vessels were shut in at Ellsworth by the sudden closing of the river.

The editor of the Bangor Jeffersonian chronicles the loss of "cold pizen" of his dog Prince. "It is something as though he were his apparent."

Hon. S. P. Shaw, formerly a prominent citizen of Maine, died last week at Paris, whither he had gone to spend the winter. Mr. Shaw was a member of Gov. Crockett's Council.

The letter from St. George lacks a signature. The writer cannot in fairness expect us to become responsible to the public for a statement which he is not willing to give us the assurance of his name is true.

"Beneath the rule of a carefully great." "The pen is mightier than the sword."

Grant is not entirely great, in fact he is not great at all and whatever his sword may have done, this production of his pen is a very flat affair. [Belfast Journal.]

A pen in the hand of the editor of the Journal must be suitably out of place. [Bangor Jeffersonian.]

The editor of the Jeffersonian in a pen paper wouldn't be.

The Ellsworth American tells of a mysterious hermit in the town of Hancock, who mortally dislikes the coming of a cock, and moves away as soon as one is brought into the neighborhood. He is doubtless some old radical, smart, filled with humor, who thinks every cock crowing is for a Democratic victory.

They have at Bangor a Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. Its first move was to buy a horse with a crippled leg, and have him killed! Mr. Carr, the President, certifies to the fact in the Whig.

The friends in the Methodist Book Concern, which is controlled by very loyal as well as very pious folks, are found to foot up to the sum of $60,000. Will the Rockland Free Press please notice?

We frequently have requests to send notices to subscribers. By our present system none are sent. Certainly, any notice—that would be swearing. "But it is wicked to say 'hang'?" "Oh, no, my son—that is the name of an inmate in a lunatic asylum." "Well, mother, 'tis a goodly number of people, but I don't see what you are so merry about." "Oh, no, sir, thirteen couples just married!"

The Bangor Whig having run down S. L. Miliken as a candidate for U. S. Marshal, has now started collector Harmon.

A piece of beef, stuck in the throat, killed a legman in Rochester, last week, and the leggers left without accepting anything but poor beef.

Richard Enright, convicted of whiskey frauds, has been pardoned by President Grant. He is very lively. Will the Rockland Free Press notice the fact?

Mr. Hubbard, of Kennebunk, recently killed a hood-saw on the rocks at that place. The animal was seven feet long, and weighed 400 pounds.

The Buffalo Commercial Advertiser, by a typographical blunder, has called the Bangor Whig, "the Buffalo troupe," in response to an enclosure. "That touching air, 'I'm a Shout'."

Bangor is putting on as with its new post office.

Postmaster General Cresswell has appointed the following Postmasters: J. H. Wright, Jackson, Maine; Vice Samuel Morgan, Jr., Bangor, Maine; Watson, Sedgewick, Me.; Vice Samuel Morgan, Jr., Bangor, Maine.

A portion of the Spanish gumbos sailed from New York on Sunday.

The loss of the quiver in Bangor. A man adventured in the Whig a lounge found.

Monroe, tried at St. John, N. B., for the murder of a woman, and her child, of which he was the father, has been found guilty.

It is stated that Secretary Boutwell is preparing a report on the necessity of the encouragement of the American shipping interests which will probably be transmitted to Congress before the holidays.

Charles A. Eastman and his brother have been arrested charged with stealing cloth from the Lewiston mills and peddling it in the country. They had been doing a large business.

The following gentlemen have been appointed Justices of the Peace and Quorums: Clarence H. Ellsworth, John W. Dresser, Cashier; Isaac W. Allen, Sedgewick; E. W. Bush, Rockland; A. H. North, Bangor; John W. Lynde, and Elias A. Lynde, Bangor; Theodore W. Lynde, Bangor; and the following to be Coroners: Leander Weeks, Rockland; and Joseph H. Gould, Camden. T. W. Vose, Waterbury, and John A. Brackett, Lincolnville, to be Notaries Public.

The editor of the New York Spirit of the Times, who was in London at the opening of the new Blackfriars Bridge, pronounces the show of the Queen's and Lord Mayor's processions to have been very small affairs.

The President has nominated Greenleaf Gilley to be First Lieutenant in the 1st Cavalry.

Mr. Farland has been indicted for the murder of A. D. Richardson.

The Bangor Whig vigorously denounces lotteries at church fairs or anywhere else. [Portland Daily Advertiser.]

All right. Now will the Whig vigorously denounce Congress for the revenue law by which, for a few, lotteries may be legal?

A Gardner man called on the editor of the Bath Times last week, with fogging intentions, but a police officer "perforated him in the top."

Walter S. Waterhouse, of East Machias, in State Prison for two years, has been pardoned.

McIntosh, the Portland Argus has the particulars of the killing of a man named McCarthy, at Standish, on the line of the Portland and Ogdensburg railroad, by William Logan. Both were employed on the works. The killing was done in a fight, with which man and a woman had each something to do.

Mr. Richardson, near Pishon's Ferry, has now stored in for the purpose, fifteen hundred fat musk-rats, and the highest market for musk-rat is in the market to take them to Boston. [Waterbury Mail.]

Gold is down to 130.

A Railroad Mass Meeting will be held at Appleton, Jan. 1. See notice.

There are only two prisoners in the Belfast Jail—one of them being there on account of Knox & Co.

The Baptist League netted to the society about $150.

"WHERE WE TO BUILD NO SEA-GOING SHIPS, NOR ENGAGE IN THE FOREIGN CARRYING TRADE, WE SHOULD PERCEIVE THE DIFFERENCE BUT LITTLE." [Progressive Age.]

The above is the encouragement given to our great local industry, by a paper published in this city. How do you like it, ship-builders, ship-owners and sailors?

Great complaint is made about the adulteration of food, drugs, &c. But no one complains of Warren's Cough Balsam.

It is an ESTABLISHED FACT, that Consumption is the most fatal of diseases, and that the cure depends on fastening on the system, by the timely use of a remedy like Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. This standard preparation will cough or choke, and even Consumption often yields to its great power.

If your horse is lame, sore, or galled, you should use "Johnson's Anodyne Liniment." Wash the parts with castile soap and warm water, rub dry, with a clean cloth, then apply the Liniment, rub in well with the hand.

Have the readers of the Journal ever used any of "Parson's Purgative Pills"? If not, why not? They are the best family physic, besides being the most pleasant and most reliable in this country.

WHAT EVERY PERSON NEEDS is some remedy for habitual Constipation. "I would advise all those who are troubled with Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Bile, Biliousness, Headache, or any form of Indigestion, to use DR. HARRISON'S PERSISTENT 'LOZENGES'." ELISHA HUNTINGTON, M. D., Ex-Lieut. Governor of Massachusetts. For sale at No. 1 Tremont Temple, Boston, by E. A. HARRISON & CO., Proprietors, and by all Druggists. Mailed for 62 cents.

BOSTON PRODUCE MARKET.

Butter—We quote good Vermont and New York butter at 25¢; with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

BRAMS—The market is firm, at 14¢ per doz for good lots.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an occasional sale of fine fat butter at 26¢; and common grades at 24¢; Canada at 23¢; Western at 22¢; and for inferior grades 21¢ per lb.

Butter—The market is quiet, and there is no change to note in price. We quote secured butter at 25¢ per bushel, with an

